The image is a screenshot of a web browser displaying the IBM Cloud Services registration process. The browser's address bar shows the URL `ibm.com/account/reg/us-en/new-password?token=90021760962976`. The page features the IBM logo at the top left. The main content area is titled "Create your new password" and includes a password input field containing "MUTHUJ109p". A "Continue" button is visible below the input field. A tooltip is displayed over the password field, listing password requirements: 8-63 characters, one uppercase character, one lowercase character, one number, and sufficiently strong. It also notes that special characters are optional and provides advice on increasing strength. The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows the Windows logo, search icon, and various application icons. The system tray indicates a temperature of 88°F and a cloudy weather condition. The time is 1:51 PM on 11/8/2022. Below the registration page, the "My IBM" dashboard is shown, featuring a navigation bar with links for "My IBM", "Profile", and "Billing". The dashboard header includes the IBM logo and the user's email address, "IBMid: kumarmuthu97053@gmail.com". The main content area of the dashboard displays a message: "Muthu, your IBM product space is ready!". Below this message, there is a section titled "Get started today with an IBM product purchase or free trial." which includes a "View catalog" button. The dashboard footer contains links for "Contact IBM", "Privacy", "Terms of use", "Accessibility", and "Cookie Preferences", along with a language selector set to "United States - English".

If your account is created using an email address containing a domain owned by an organization which you are employed by, contracted to, or volunteer for, your organization can:

- inquire about the status of your ID
- request your account settings (including your personal information)
- at its option, convert it to an enterprise ID.

If your account was created as (or is converted to) an enterprise ID, your organization manages your account information. It is also the authenticating agency for your ID, meaning your access is controlled by your organization's login service.

Obtain an IBM Cloud Feature Code

To facilitate hands-on skills development and enable you to complete some of the labs in this course, we are providing you with a special feature code for IBM Cloud.

This feature code will enable you to either create an IBM Cloud account without a credit card, or extend the validity of your existing IBM Cloud trial.

Please check the box and click on the Open tool button below to obtain a unique Feature Code and copy it. You will be able to apply it using the instructions that follow in a subsequent lab in the course.

NOTE: If you have already applied your IBM Cloud feature code in another course/lab to create an IBM Cloud account or extend its trial, please skip this item, as the code can only be used once.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with multiple tabs open. The active tab is the course page for 'Obtain an IBM Cloud Feature Code'. The page has a navigation bar with 'Course', 'Progress', 'Dates', and 'Discussion'. The main content area is titled 'Obtain an IBM Cloud Feature Code' and includes a 'Bookmark this page' link. The text explains that the feature code is provided to facilitate hands-on skills development and enable completion of labs. It states that the code can be used to create an IBM Cloud account without a credit card or extend the validity of an existing trial. A note mentions that if the code has already been used in another course/lab, it should be skipped. Below the text is a section titled 'LTI Consumer (External resource)' with an 'Open Tool' button. The bottom of the page shows a Windows taskbar with various application icons and a system clock indicating 1:33 PM on 11/8/2022.
